INTRODUCTION

The McClish Kith & Kin is a combined effort of 35 years of challenging and sometimes grueling, but always interesting research. The many conversations with our distant relatives were enjoyable, informative and so rewarding. We want to thank you all for your time, effort, and valuable contributions to this family record.

The book includes nine generations, the first being Isaiah and Rachel (Huston) McClish. The ninth generation consists of the 6th great grandchildren of Isaiah and Rachel McClish.

FOREWORD

The history of the McClish family coming to America was told by two different descendants, Julia Lucas and Cathy Miller. Their families have not been in touch or lived in the same area for over one hundred and forty years, however, both told the story almost word for word. The story is as follows:

> "The McClish clan had been fighting with another clan and had decided to sail to America. Bonny Prince Charles was a part of the clan and said he would be at the docks with his men the day they were to sail to protect the McClish clan from the clan they were fighting with. For some reason he did not show up on time and the McClish clan were all killed except for one pregnant woman whom the men pushed and told her to run to the ship and seek safety. She got on the wrong ship, but the captain of the ship hid her on his ship with the cattle."

This is as far as the story goes. It leaves a lot of questions, but we can assume she arrived safely in the United States and the child she had was a son.

The earliest record of a McClish in America was of Robert McLeish, Certificate of Stray issued in 1706, Prince George County, Maryland ("Prince George County, Maryland Court Records," page 95). The following records of this family were recorded in the "Index to the Probate Records of Prince George's County Maryland 1696-1900," page 130 & 131: William McClash (McClish), deceased and his wife Jayne Administrator, Doc 1, dated 15 April 1746, book DD 1, page 409; Robert McCish (McClish), deceased and his wife Sarah administrator, doc 1, dated 28 Nov. 1760, book GS 1, page 84; Robert McClish, deceased and administrator Abraham Bedde (Beddo), doc A, dated 3 May 1797, book ST 3, page 38 & 116. Robert married Catherine Beddo 14 Dec. 1785. They had a son, Absalom, born 7 Dec. 1791.

We also have a record of a William Mack Clash (McClish) baptized 2 Feb. 1752, St. John Parish, Prince George Co., Maryland to Robert and Sarah Mack Clash (McClish) ("Maryland Colonial Statistics," book 22, page 284, Prince George County).

From the above records one could piece together a record as follows: The first William could have been the son of Robert (the stray) and the second William could have been the grandson of Robert (the stray).

1 ISAIAH MCCLISH: was born probably in Prince George Co., MD, before 1755. Probably the son of Robert and Sarah (Christ) McClish. Isaiah married probably in Bedford Co., PA, about 1778 Rachel Huston, who was born between 1760 and 1770. Rachel was the daughter of Alexander Huston, who moved to Montgomery Co., OH in 1787. Alexander died shortly after 4 Feb. 1814 (census and Alexander's will: "In the name of God Amen February 4, 1814. I Alexander Houston of Dayton Township, Montgomery county, State of Ohio being weak in body but sound in Judgment do ordain this my Last Will and testament in the form and manor following to Wit: and first I ordain that all Lawful debts and funeral expenses be justly paid. A copy of a petition of 1818 by Dominick McGrath: "1818 Apr. 4TH-Petition: Dominick McGrath and Katherine his wife, stating that Alexander

Huston, late of Montgomery Co., O died seized of land. At his death he had children and heirs: Catherine, a petitioner, Andrew, John, Rebecca, David, Mary, Rachel, Sally, Alexander, Susannah, Samuel* and *Edward Huston. That the petitioner claims in right of his wife Catherine, Jacob McClish, George D. Roberts, Jacob Oldsward (Oswalt), John Croy who married Susannah and left issue: Jacob, Elizabeth, Alexander, Mathiad, John, Benjamin, Samuel, Joseph, Sally McClure and James. Mary Ann Huston was the wife of dec'd Alexander Huston." (Early Ohio Newspaper, Ohio Watchman).

It is believed that because Isaiah McClish was dead at the time of the petition, Jacob McClish represented his mother.

Isaiah purchased a land grant in Columbiana Co., OH, 10 Oct. 1807. (Early Ohioan's Residences From Land Grant Records, Steubenville Land Office #2707: Isaiah McClish, Columbiana Co.; sec. S.E. 11; tp. 16; r. 7; 161.71 acres @ $2/acre for total of $323.42; amt. paid down $80.85½; amt. left $242.56½). This section of land was later in Rose Tp., Carroll Co., OH. In 1820 Aaron Pugh owned this land. We believe that Isaiah died prior to making the final payment. A certificate was not issued as of 1812. And this could have been because Isaiah was dead. Two of Isaiah's sons married Aaron Pugh's daughters or daughter-in-laws.

Children of Isaiah and Rachel McClish: Robert; Jacob; Female (born before 1790 [census]); Nancy; William; *Mary; Isaiah; Alexander; *Sarah; *Elizabeth. *We have no proof other than census and land records.

2nd Generation

Children of Isaiah McClish-1

2 ROBERT MCCLISH (Isaiah McClish): was probably born in MD or Londondery Tp., Bedford Co., PA, about 1780. He married first in Columbiana Co., OH, 16 June 1806 Lydia Thatcher, daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth Thatcher. Lydia's sisters: Hester married Robert's brother, Jacob; Sussana married George B. Grate, whose son, Isaac Grate, married Jacob's daughter, Elizabeth's. He married second in Tuscarawas Co., OH, 16 June 1815 Catherine Walters (census, land and marriage records).

It is possible that Robert married a third time as his land record of 1835, Tuscarawas Co., list his wife's name as Christena McClish, who was born in PA, about 1783 and died after July 1860, Wells Co, IN (census and Land records, Robert McClish to William Holmes Deed: "This indenture made this twenty seventh day of March in the year of Our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty five by and between Robert McClish and Christena his wife, of the county of Tuscarawas in state of Ohio of the one part and William Holmes of the county and state aforesaid of the other part. Wit. that the said Robert McClish and Christena his wife for and in consideration of the just sum of fifty one dollars to them in hand paid the receipt whereof they do hereby acknowledge have given granted bargained sold released and conveyed and do by these presents give grant bargain sell release convey and confirm unto the said William Holmes and his heirs and of signs forever all that had or parcel of land situated and being in the county of Tuscarawas state of Ohio it being the north end of the west half of the south west quarter of section No twenty one township No nine range No one containing forty acres on the district of Sands subject to sale at Zanesville Ohio (which land was purchased at the land office in Zanesville by Robert McClish)...").

Robert was living in Warren Tp., Tuscarawas Co. in the 1820 and 1830. In 1820 census there were three unidentified females living with Robert. It's possible that Catherine had been married before her marriage to Robert and the three females may have been from Catherine's first marriage or one may have been Lydia's daughter. In 1840 they were living in Green Tp., Hocking Co., OH. In 1850 they were living in Fall Tp., Hocking Co. In 1860 they were farming in Nottingham Tp, Wells Co., IN (census).

Other misc. records:

1-"Robert McClish, Richard Castleman, and John Stull were each paid $5, for one panther scalp in 1805" (History of Belmont and Jefferson Co., Ohio).

2-A list containing the names of all males in the county over eighteen years of age who were subject to military duty in 1806, Capt. Bradfield's Company: Robert McClish; Jacob McClish; Isaac Grate; Alexander Huston and others. (Columbiana County History, Roster of Columbiana Militia 1806).

Children of Robert and Lydia McClish: John; Rachel. Children of Robert and Catherine McClish: Catherine A.; James; Elizabeth; Robert M.; Leonard Walters.

3 JACOB MCCLISH (Isaiah McClish): was probably born in Londondery Tp., Bedford Co., PA, or MD, 11 Sep. 1784 and died 6 Mar. 1851 DeKalb Co., IN. He married Hester Thatcher in Columbiana Co., OH, 4 Nov. 1809, Hester was born in NJ, about 1786 and died in DeKalb Co., IN, 21 Mar. 1855. Hester was the daughter of Isaac and Elizabeth Thatcher. Lydia's sisters: Hester married Robert's brother, Jacob; Sussana married George B. Grate, whose son, Isaac Grate, married Jacob's daughter, Elizabeth's (marriage, Cedar Lake Cemetery records, DeKalb Co. and will recorded 24 Sep. 1854: "The last Will and testament of Jacob McClish of Smithfield township, DeKalb County. I Jacob McClish considering the uncertainty of this mortal life, and being of sound mind and memory (blessed be Almighty God for the same) do make and publish this my last Will and Testament. In manner and forever following (that is to say) First I recommend my soul to Almighty God. Second--I do give my loving wife Hesta McClish the privilege of selling all the real and personal property now in my possession and after paying all my lawful debts, to appropriate the balance to her own use during her natural life. And if there is any left, I will and bequeath Hester Sherman and Faithful Safrony (Sophronia) Croy my two loving daughters, one hundred dollars each. And if there is any remaining I will it to all my loving children share and share alike. I do hereby appoint Thomas Lacey Executor, and my beloved wife Hester McClish Executrix. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal the twenty-second day of February one thousand Eight hundred and fifty-one.

He purchased 160 acres of land from his father-in-law, Isaac Thatcher, 11 Nov. 1820, N.E. ¼ sec. 25, Tp., 15, r. 6 of the Harrison Tp., Stark Co. They sold this land to Joseph Jenkins 17 Aug. 1832. Jacob purchased land in Thompson Tp., Seneca Co., OH, 13 Oct. 1832 (E ½ SW¼ sec., 33, page 1069, History of Seneca County, Ohio.) His son, Isaiah, also purchased land in Pleasant Tp. in 1834 (census and land records).

In the Spring of 1838 Jacob and his sons, Isaiah, Jacob and his son-in-law, Thomas Lock, settled upon sec. 19, DeKalb Co., IN. In 1840 and 1850 they were living in Smithfield Tp., DeKalb Co. (census and History of DeKalb County, Indiana).

Children of Jacob and Hester McClish: Isaiah; Elizabeth; Rachel; Hester; Faithful Sophrona; Jacob.

5 WILLIAM MCCLISH (Isaiah McClish): was probably born in Londondery Tp., Bedford Co., PA or MD, about 1790 and probably died in Tuscarawas Co., OH, about 1825. He married in Tuscarawas Co., 5 Mar. 1812 Mary Delong, who was born in OH, 22 Apr. 1791 and died in Paulding Co., OH, 16 Apr. 1876 (census, marriage and Snellenberger Cemetery records).

In 1820 William and Mary were living in One Leg Tp., Tuscarawas Co. Mary married second in Tuscarawas Co., 9 Oct. 1828 Arthur Chinworth, who was born in NY about 1801 and died in Paulding Co., 11 Feb. 1886. Their children: John Chinworth 1830; Solomon Chinworth 10 Dec. 1832; Charlotte Chinworth 15 Jan. 1835 (census, marriage, death and probate records).

In 1830 Arthur and Mary were living in Dohrman Tp., Tuscarawas Co. In 1840 and Sep. 1850 they were living in Franklin Tp., Harrison Co., OH. In 1860 and 1870 they were living in Harrison Tp., Paulding Co. Arthur purchased land in sec. 1 and 27 in Harrison Tp. They sold part the NW¼ of sec. 27, Harrison Tp. to Mary's daughter, Jane Hooker, about 1860. Arthur sold part of the NW¼ of sec. 27 to James Longberry about 1876. They were living in Oxford Tp., Coshocton Co., OH from 1820 to 1840 (census).

Children of Remembrance and Nancy Williams (information from census): (#25-30) three sons, one was Isaac and three daughters.

7 MARY MCCLISH (Isaiah McClish): Mary was born about 1795, PA, thought to be the daughter of Isaiah and Rachel (Huston) McClish. We have no proof that Mary was their daughter other than her date of birth fits into the 1800 census and that its possible that Isaiah and his family moved back to Bedford Co., PA after they were in Ohio, and that after Isaiah died Rachel and the children moved back to live close to her children.

Mary probably married in Somerset Co., PA, 1 Jan. 1813 John Strawn (Early Friends Families Of Upper Bucks and Biographical Record of Marshall County, Illinois: "---John Strawn married Mary McClish, of Scotch descent, but born in the Scioto Valley of Ohio. They were married in Pennsylvania, and in 1813, moved to Perry county, Ohio, locating in Hopewell Township, where he improved a farm of four hundred acres given him by his father. He built an immense barn there and otherwise improved the place, subsequently selling out, and coming to Marshall County in 1828. After selecting his land he returned to Ohio, and brought his family to this county, in grand style with a six-horse match team. The outfit caused great astonishment all along the route. The family arrived in Marshall County, in August, 1829, and located on section 4, Richland Township, where Colonel Strawn pitched a tent in which the family lived all winter. At the time of their settlement there were no other white families in this locality. Indians were numerous and flocked in to see the family in great numbers. In the spring of 1830, the colonel built a double log cabin and lived in it for ten years. He made bricks on the farm, and built the brick house, still standing, in 1839. It is the oldest brick house in the county.

Colonel Strawn mainly gave his attention to his farm, improving an entire section of land. From the very first he was prosperous and added to his possessions until he became one of the wealthiest men in Marshall county. His wife was truly a helpmeet and favorably known throughout Marshall and surrounding counties. To Colonel and Mary Strawn were born Eleven children--William, who married Helen M. Broaddus, who is now deceased; Rachel the deceased wife of Jesse B. Bane, also deceased; Mary Ann, widow of James Thompson; Enoch, the subject of this sketch; Caroline, the deceased wife of William Thomas, of Lacon; Emily, deceased wife of D. Holland, also deceased; Salome, the deceased wife of William Orr, also deceased; Susan, the widow of Enoch Owen; Levetia, the deceased wife of A. Pichereau, of Lacon,and two who died in infancy.---")

Children of John and Mary Strawn (other than William the children are thought to be born in Perry Co., OH [page 542, "EARLY FRIENDS FAMILIES OF UPPER BUCKS"]): William #36, born 16 Oct. 1814, Ross Co., OH); Rachel #37, born 18 Feb. 1818; Mary Ann #38, born 28 Feb. 1820; Enoch #39, born 18 Feb. 1822; Caroline #40, born 5 June 1823 Emily #41, born 4 Oct. 1824; Salome 42, born 26 June 1826; Susan M. #43, born 6 Apr. 1828; Savicy H. #44, born in Marshall Co., IL, 16 Feb. 1833.

*We have more information on Mary's children, but have not included it in the book as we do not know if they are part of the family.

Catherine (Pugh) McClish

8 ISAIAH MCCLISH (Isaiah McClish): was probably born in Londondery Tp., Bedford Co., PA or MD, about 1797 and died 14 Sep. 1854 DeKalb Co., IN. He married in Rose Tp., Stark Co., OH, 6 May 1819 Catherine Pugh, daughter of Aaron Pugh, who was born about 1800 and died in DeKalb Co., 13 Jan 1887 (marriage and Cedar Lake Cemetery records). Isaiah's brother, Alexander married Catherine's sister, Rosanna. Isaiah was living in Rose Tp., Stark Co. in 1820, 1830 and 1840 (In 1833 Rose Tp., Stark Co., became part of Carroll Co., census). In Sep. 1842 they sold land to Jacob Shrayer (Stark Co., OH, land records: "...in consideration of the sum of one thousand Dollars in hand paid by Jacob Shrayer...situated in the County of Carroll in the State of Ohio and in the Township of Rose, being the west half of the North West quarter of Section Number Sixteen Township Number Sixteen and Range Number seven within said District Containing Eighty acres of Land more or less").

In 1850 they were living in Smithfield Tp., DeKalb Co., IN (census). Elizabeth died in Mendon Tp., St. Joseph Co., 29 Aug. 1904 (marriage records and Obits [Isaiah's] Kalamazoo Weekly Telegraph, Wed., Nov. 2, 1887: "Uncle McClish, an old timer died last Thursday" and Beard cemetery records, St. Joseph Co. [Elizabeth's] "Elizabeth Lope (Cope) McClish was born in Germany, March 6, 1814 and died August 29, 1904, aged 90 years, 6 months, and 23 days. She came to America with her parents in 1821, where they settled in Ohio, in 1830. She was united in marriage to Isiah (Isaiah) McClish, commencing that strenuous life incident to pioneer days, equipped with love, courage health, and a log house and fireplace with a crane, and irons, and a bake kettle with iron cover, in which the corn and rye bread was baked with the heat from the fireplace and coals of fire on the lid. In 1837 they moved to Indiana with their three children. In 1855 they went to Wisconsin with 9 children leaving one little son, Jacob, in his "narrow house," on Indiana soil, in another year they came to Branch County, Michigan when nearly all of Michigan was a wilderness. They with the early pioneers suffered many hardships, braved the elements and bore the privations of their pilgrimage. If the pioneer was content in working around the humble cabin providing shelter, food and protection for their family, we certainly should be, as Michigan has changed from a wilderness to rich farms with their fields and meadows, better schools and colleges, and greater church privileges, much more is expected of this generation. After moving to Michigan two more children were born, then went to Illinois where they remained three years, thence once more coming to Michigan. At two different times they lived in Northern Michigan, but for twenty years she has lived in St. Joseph County. Three children and her husband have preceded her to the beautiful beyond, in 1887 the father departed this life and now we lay in the grave the body that clothed the gentle loving spirit of the mother whose journey is now ended. She leaves behind 9 children, 48 grandchildren, 95 great grandchildren and 19 great, great grand children, making in all 171 descendants. Since her husband's death in '87 she has lived alone, surrounded by her children and grandchildren, until the last year she had grown so feeble she went to live with her daughter, Mrs. Hughey, where she departed from this life, after a few hours illness, on Aug. 29, 1904").

In 1830 Isaiah was living next to his father, in Harrison Tp., Stark Co., OH. Isaiah purchased land (E½ E¼ sec. 15) in Pleasant Tp., Seneca Co., OH, 22 Jan. 1834. His father also purchased land, Thompson Tp. in 1832. In the Spring of 1838 they moved to Sec. 19, DeKalb Co., IN along with his father, brother, Jacob, and brother-in-law, Thomas Lock. The following information came from a great great grand-daughter, Kay A. Gabel (co Author of book), from interviews with people who remembered Isaiah and Elizabeth: "Elizabeth came from Germany when about seven years old. She was living in Portage County, OH until her marriage to Isaiah, they lived quite a ways apart. Elizabeth was quite a feisty old lady according to all the people I have talked with that knew Elizabeth. They came by wagon to Michigan and it was pulled by a horse and a cow, they needed the cow for milk for the children. They came to St. Joseph Co. to what was then called Stony Creek Island. You wouldn't think it an island if you could see it, but there is a creek on all four sides and you have to cross the bridges to get there, when they came the water was quite deep in what now just looks like ditches Isaiah was given 40 acres of land for clearing off the other 40 for a Mr. Beebe. When they arrived there were no bridges so they had to stop and make a bridge to get across. While Isaiah was clearing the trees and trying to make the bridge, Granny, as she was referred as, had to kill a snake with the hoe. Granny smoked a clay pipe as did several of her daughters. Little is known of Isaiah as he died before any of the people alive now were born. From a little clipping in the paper, it calls him "Uncle McClish", it sounds like he must have been well liked. They moved around often. It is believed that Isaiah owned his own saw mill and he traveled wherever the lumber work was. It is also said at one point they lived in Prairie Du Chien, Crawford Co., WI."

The regiment was ordered to Zanesville, and afterwards to Camp Dennison, a company being added at each place. December 27th, it was ordered to Louisville, where danger was expected from the Morgan raid. The order was all together unexpected, as the organization was incomplete, but in two hours after its reception the regiment was on its way, finely equipped. In February, 1863, it was ordered to Nashville, and while there, suffered severely from sickness. The regiment was assigned to General C.C. Gilbert's division, and moved to Franklin, where it participated in several expeditions against the enemy. The command formed the right wing of the army of the Cumberland, as it entered upon the Tullahoma campaign. After a wearisome and trying march over the mountains, the regiment bore a distinguished part in the sanguinary battle of Chickamauga, being brought into action on the afternoon of the second day, at the most critical point and moment. It was a bloody baptism for the regiment, as its loss was one hundred and thirty-eight, officers and men, out of three hundred and eighty.

The division formed a part of General Sherman's force at the battle of Mission Ridge. From here the regiment moved to the relief of Knoxville.

This was a march of much suffering. The men marched without sufficient clothing, without blankets or overcoats, and many of them without shoes. After Longstreet was forced to retire, the regiment returned to Chattanooga, and thence to McAfee's Church, eight miles south, where it went into winter quarters. Here it remained until May 7, 1864, when it moved on the Atlanta campaign. The regiment was at Buzzard's Gap, Resaca, Rome, Dallas and New Hope Church, and on to Kennesaw Mountain. In this battle [Kennesaw] the regiment formed the first assault, and lost ten officers and one hundred and three men. According to the diary of an officer, during a march of one hundred and seven days of the Atlanta campaign the regiment was under fire eighty-nine days. It afterwards was with Sherman in his "march to the sea," bearing full witness of the fights and hardships of this memorable journey. After the surrender of Johnson, it moved to Washington and participated in the grand review. It was mustered out at Louisville, Kentucky, July 6, 1865, and was discharged at Columbus, Ohio." The Governor announces with deep sorrow that Reverend Eli McClish, Chaplain of the Pacific Branch, died at 10:45 p.m., on February 7th 1918.

II. Chaplain McClish was born in Warren County, Indiana, October 3rd, 1846, and when about eight years of age was orphaned by the death of both his parents. On November 12, 1863, having secured the consent of his guardian he enlisted in Battery D, First Illinois Light Artillery, joining his command at Vicksburg, Miss. As a member of this organization he participated in the operations of General Sherman's army in front of Kenesaw Mountain in May, 1864, and from that period to the capture of the City of Atlanta he was with his battery on the firing line continuously until the surrender of the city. After the surrender of Atlanta, he was transferred, with other members of his command, to a Minnesota battery of light artillery, and participated in the campaign from Atlanta to the sea, which finally culminated in the surrender of Johnson's army near Raleigh, N.C. After the surrender of the Confederate armies, he was mustered out with his command at Raleigh, N.C., in November, 1865.

III. On returning to civil life, Chaplain McClish realized the necessity of an education to equip himself for the ministry, which profession he decided to adopt. Commencing as a poor boy, in the lowest grades. He worked his way thru the academy and seminary, to accomplish which he had to make many sacrifices. Later on he had the pleasure of serving as president of this same institution, i.e., The Grand Prairie Seminary, at Onarga, Illinois, for six years. Afterwards, for a period of ten years, he served as president of the University of Pacific, at San Jose, California. He also served as pastor in the Methodist Episcopal Church for nearly twenty-five years.
IV. On September 30, 1915. Chaplain McClish was appointed Chaplain of Pacific Branch, National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, and during his services he endeared himself to the officers and members of the Branch. The love that he bore his comrades in the Civil war never diminished during his life, and it was this love that spurred him on to his best efforts in his duties as the Chaplain of Pacific Branch....

George C. McClish

118 *GEORGE C. "LITTLE GEORGE" MCCLISH (Isaiah, Jacob, Isaiah McClish): was born in Seneca Co., OH, 23 Aug. 1836 and he died in St. Joseph Co., MI, died 17 Feb. 1918 (Death records: cause Occluding of Bowels and (Obit: "George C. McClish was born in Seneca County, Ohio, August 23, 1836 and departed this life at his home in Mendon Township on Feb. 11, 1918, aged 81 years, 5 months and 17 days. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaiah McClish and was one of a family of twelve children. When three years old he moved with his parents to Smithfield Township, Indiana, where he grew up to manhood. He was united in marriage with Eliza Ann Myers on June 23, 1857. There were born to them ten children, five sons and five daughter. His wife and two sons, Freddie and Samuel and one daughter, Mrs. Ella Happel, passed on before. After living in different parts of neighboring states for several years, they came to Michigan in 1862 and settled in the northeastern part of Mendon Township and resided here until the time of his death. When he came to his present home it was a wilderness and the village of Mendon was in its infancy, but by perseverance and hard work, he cut away the forest and provided a home for himself and his family. As means of travel were very limited he was obliged to move his family and what few household articles he proudly possessed with a team, consisting of a cow and a steer. He with the other pioneers knew how to use the flail (tool for threshing grain by hand), scythe, and cradle. In the place of these rude instruments have come more useful implements of husbandry and more convenient articles for our comfort and repose. He with the early pioneers suffered many hardships, braved the elements and bore the privations of their pilgrimage. If the pioneer was content in working around the humble cabin, chipping away the forests or breaking the land and in this rude way providing shelter, food and protection for his family, then as Michigan has changed from a wilderness, having rich farms with their broad fields and meadows, better schools, colleges and greater church privileges much more is expected of this generation.

Though the deceased had been failing gradually, his late illness reminding us that "we know not what the day may bring forth" and he passed away surrounded by his children who did all that mortal hands could for his comfort. He leaves one brother, four sister, three sons: George, John, and Will four daughters, Mrs. Dora Stienbarger, Mrs. Alice Iobe, Mrs. Etta Rice and Mrs. Myrtle Metty, twenty-two grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren and a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a father and a good neighbor.")

She was married to Geo. C. McClish on June 23 1857. Ten children came to bless their union, the youngest, Freddie, dying in infancy; nine left the home roof to establish homes of their own; seven remain to mourn the mother's loss; two, Samuel and Mrs. Ella Happle (Happel) having passed to the great beyond. On June 14, 1862, she, with her husband and little family came from Illinois and located on the farm where they since resided. She has seen the surrounding country change from a wilderness to fertile farms. Hers was a beautiful life ever serving her family, giving advice and aid in her children's homes until the past few years it became necessary for the children to return some of the services owing to her age and poor health, and she was the recipient of the most devoted care from her children. She was confined to her bed the past few weeks and patiently awaited the end of a long life of loving service. Eli Gaut died, at his home in our city, Mr. Eli Gaut, aged 94 years, 3 months and 10 days. He was a man of generous impulses and never forgot the hospitable ways of the pioneer. Anyone, even though he were a stranger, seeking help, sustenance, guidance or consolation never failed to receive a kind, sympathetic and generous response. Always he was glad and ready to assist in every possible way his fellow men. All this we shall miss, but though our loss is bitter indeed, still, instead of tears, let us crown his grave with garlands; few of us will ever live as long or as well, and fewer yet will the Angel of Death greet with such a loving touch.

He is gone! Another name is stricken from the ever lessening roll of our old settlers, yet his life was so noble, so well filled, that there can be no cause for grief except because of our loss. His life work was done and well done. There are no words with which to fittingly portray the sincerity and greatness of his character. To man, woman, or child, saint or sinner, he always extended a cordial greeting that gladdened the heart and brightened the pathway. We find no greater, nobler souls.

He was born in Harrison County, Ohio, January 18, 1835. He came with his parents to Paulding County in the year 1851-a time when Paulding County was practically a wilderness. Mrs. McKean passed away last Friday in a Mount Vernon Hospital at the ripe age of 92 years. Rosary was held Monday night June 7, at Tiffany's Gunderson Chapel. Father William Slate was Celebrant at the last rites. Born July 22, 1878 two miles north of city limits on what is now the Ben Dettling farm, Mrs. McKean lived here all of her life, and until recent years was active in the Pioneer Daughters of Washington. She also was a lifetime member of Stillaguamish Grange. Her parents, William B. Moore and Lavina Gage Moore, were among the first to take up homesteads on the north flats. Her father crossed the plains in a covered wagon in 1850, traveling from New York City to the "Gold Rush" fields of California. From there he came north to the Shasta Mountains and on to the Frazier River Canyon. After these ventures, he returned to Washington State, logging for a time at Holmes Harbor. Later, he came to Stanwood, where he logged spar timber for ships and sluiced them down a "hand dug" ditch extending from what is now Dettling Hill to the bay. Lavina Gage, who became his wife, was born in Scotland and migrated first to Quebec Province, Canada and then to Skagit City. Moore "diked in" the present Dettling farm and built a home for his family just east of the railroad at Dettling's Crossing. It was there that Anna Moore McKean was born. Her sister, the late Mrs. James Keenan, is said to have been the first white baby north of town. Mrs. McKean and Mrs. Nellie Holte of Conway were known as the second and third white women born on the flats.

In 1900, 1910 and 1920 they owned a farm north of Stanwood, Snohomish Co. (census). History of Snohomish County: "Edmund McKean was born Piatt County, Illinois, a representative agriculturist of Snohomish County, Washington owning a quarter section of land lying two and one-half miles north of Stanwood, Washington, had served as an appraiser for the Federal Farm Loan Association in the Cedarhome district during the past eight years (1914-1922). Edmund acquired a public school education in Illinois, his native state, and after putting aside his textbooks engaged in farm work. He was a youth of 18 when in 1884 he accompanied his parents on their removal to Kansas, in which state he rode the range as a cowboy for six years. On the expiration of that period he came to Snohomish county, Washington, arriving at Stanwood on the 20th of October, 1890, then made his way to Rossland, British Columbia, purchased a four-horse team and began freighting to the mines. In the summer of 1897 he returned to Stanwood, making the journey overland by team and being twenty-four days in route. Here he used his team in hauling shingle bolts to the mills, his time being thus occupied for a period of nine years, while during the succeeding three years he hauled cream for the Stanwood Creamery. In the year 1892 he had purchased forty acres of land in township 32, range 4, east, two and one-half miles north of Stanwood, constituting a part of the Old Bill Sill homestead. An old log house stood on the place, but none of the land had been cleared. Mr. McKean began cutting bolts and timber on the tract and subsequently made an additional purchased of forty acres adjoining the east, while a year later he bought eighty acres more, thus coming into possession of the entire quarter section. He has cut wood on the place during the past quarter century, but the timber is still plentiful and he is now busily engaged in clearing his land of stumps. The soil is rich and productive, annually yielding large hay and root crops.

Mr. McKean keeps about nineteen head of cattle and three horses and is a member of the Dairymen's Association. He built an attractive new residence on his farm in 1898, and in 1916 he erected a barn. As above stated, he was elected appraiser for the Federal Farm Loan Association the past eight years. The cause of education finds in him a stanch champion and he is also an active supporter of good roads projects.

On the 30th of March, 1896, Mr. McKean was married at Everett to Miss Annie Alice Moore, daughter of William Boardman Moore."

Information from Virginia (Gray) Stevens: "Mom an dad's live of hunting came second to their love for each other and Gloria and I. Every fall they would pack their house trailer to go on a six week hunting trip. Dad and a friend, Ed O'Donnell, built the first house trailer in Seattle in 1935 (see picture above). When not working during the rest of the year they went fishing or trap shooting which they both enjoyed. Dad was good at both but mom was the best.

Early each morning they would set out enjoying each others company and of course a little wager would ensue to see who would be first for success. A friendly loving game mom and dad would play. After the day was over they would sit around the camp fire with their friends and enjoy those outrageous stories only hunters and fishermen can tell so well. They enjoyed this practice for over 30 years."

Phil McKean

1273 PHILIP "PHIL" CLARENCE McKEAN (Edmund McKean, Almira Peoples, Rachel, Robert, Isaiah McClish): was born Stanwood, Snohomish Co., WA, 24 Feb. 1904 and died at Mount Vernon, Skagit Co., WA, 6 Apr. 1980. He married in Snohomish Co., Bergliot Sophie Tronson, who was born at Arlington, Snohomish Co., 30 Apr. 1911 and died Apr. 1985 (S.S. and Cedarhome Cemetery records, Stanwood).

Article was written by their daughter: "He was born at home in Stanwood. He reached his full height of 6'4" at the age of twelve. He was not an outstanding Student but he excelled in Math. He started school in Stanwood. One of the few pupils who traveled by horse and buggy and didn't have to walk. He finished his schooling in Selah, WA, while Chaperoning his sister's, Alice, first year of teaching.

He loved sports playing football and baseball whenever possible. He was a baseball pitcher. One of his early jobs was weeding beets (I don't know what kind, sugar or table beets) for one dollar a day. From there he progressed to milking cows at the Downey ranch in La Connor for two dollars a week with board and room. Some how from there he progressed to driving auto freight from Bellingham to Seattle. The trucks were the old hard tire variety. He had many stories to tell of high jackers and always carried a tire iron under his front seat. Times were very hard although this was still before the depression. He made enough at this job to buy an almost new 1929 Chevrolet coupe. The depression hit, he married and had me and was back milking cows. We lived in the Hancock house on the flats next to the Dettling farm. He milked at the Downey Ranch again for $2.00 a day this time.

It was an exciting time living so near the railroad tracks which were busy with hobos, bums, tramps and whatever. One night some one was trying to steal our car right outside the bedroom window. Dad managed to scare them off. Mom started going to work with Dad for his 2:00 AM shift. I went with of course. About this time he worked on the Cle Elum dam. Again it was with the old hard tired trucks. I remember stories of lighting fires under the diesel trucks to warm them enough to start. The weather must have stopped work because it was back to Stanwood and no work and then later back to Cle Elum and finishing the dam (an earth fill).

It followed by a long (seemed long) period of short jobs-cutting firewood for the school, working on the new highway 99, near Brandstroms corner, and other day jobs, haying etc. About 1934 he took the last of his money and went to Coulee dam. At that time just a very deep canyonwith a river at the bottom, they were still bull dozing and no jobs. He worked his way home thinning and picking fruit through the Chelan and Wenatchee areas. Then it was back to Stanwood. In 1935 Al Gray got dad a job working for his friend Gene Kendall. We moved to Portland and his job at Arrow Transportation. It was a big operation. He loved it. It was again truck driving, hauling gasoline all over Oregon. Here again he could have written a book on his harrowing tales of truck driving particularly in winter. For the next few years it was the gypsy life of the tanker driver. To Ellensburg to Goldendale to Ellensburg to Seattle to Bothell; staying there for 8 years. During that time, he was written about in several newspapers for his helpful, courteous and competent work. He then hauled a lot of fuel to Coulee Dam which was one of his great loves.

During the war years he worked sometimes 72 hours with out a break and had the inevitable accident and was fired, although he hit a rock bank to avoid a car load of kids. He still liked driving and worked for the Navy driving from Sand Point to bases all over the North West. Sometimes during blackouts which was pretty hazardous. From that he was pretty burned out from truck driving and worked lumber and dairy product warehouse.

In the late 30's he started deer hunting and was very successful. He had hunted for birds his whole life. He started sport fishing in the early 40's never did very well but loved it. He worked in a Silica mine at New Halem and a ranch in Winthrop. From there to working for Pictsweet and Twin City Foods in Ellensburg, Stanwood and Mt Vernon. In Ellensburg he drove the first corn picker west of the corn belt and was again in the papers with this machine. Some years later he was associated with the first use of combines in pea harvest. He retired from working in the farm machine shops of the food plants. His retired life was mostly caring for Mom. He died of cancer in 1980 after living his last year in hell."

1322 HARRY MARION MCCLISH (George W, David, Catherine, Robert, Isaiah McClish): A letter from Harry's son, Lyle, which tells of Harry's life dated 20 Aug. 1994: "Harry was born November 14th, 1891 in New Castle, Henry Co., IN and dad told me when he was a small boy he became very sick and passed out. His mother and dad thought that he was dead and they covered him with a sheet. When the undertaker came to get the body he saw Harry move a little and they then called a doctor. Shortly after, he got well and continued on with his life. Harry's mother, Alma Retta Knapp, passed away at the age of 34 years during child birth. Harry at the time was 6 years old and his father George, married again 6 years later to Olive Solomon. Olive passed away at the age of 37. Olive Alice was 16 years old when she married George. Home life wasn't the same for Harry and two years after his dad's marriage to Olive he left home. He was only 14 years old, but he wanted to begin life on his own. Harry stayed for awhile with Oran Shoemaker and was working at a Auto company making Maxwell cars. Harry bought a small piece of land near a railroad track and built a shack to live in. When Harry was close to 20 years old, he decided that he wanted a better job to earn more money and improve himself. He bought a ticket to what he thought was Indianapolis, but instead the ticket was for Minneapolis. He arrived with little money in a big city. Harry soon found work at a lumber company, so that he had enough money to live on. Mabel and a girlfriend came from the county, a small town called Brook Park, which is located approximately 70 miles from Minneapolis, and they were working as cooks in a restaurant when they met Harry. Mabel encouraged him to study to be a cook and told him that he could make more money. Harry took her advice and soon had a job as a cook in a restaurant. An opening in a restaurant in Minot, North Dakota came up and Harry took the job. Harry wrote to Mabel and her friend to have them come to Minot because there were better jobs with more pay. So Mabel and her friend left for Minot. A few years later, Harry had a chance to be the head cook at a hotel in Winnipeg, Canada and so he moved to Canada. He wrote to have Mable and her friend come to Canada, so they both moved to Canada. After awhile Mabel's friend decided to move back to Minneapolis and not long after Harry married Mabel, which was in 1912. Harry and Mabel had a daughter, Marguerite, who was born in Winnipeg. Harry decided to move back to Minneapolis and he rented an apartment for himself and his family in Northeast Minneapolis and he started cooking at the Nicollet Hotel. Later he became the head cook at the Radison Hotel. Thursday, she wasn't sure how to feel after learning police had arrested a Grand Rapids-area man in the 1979 slaying. She was angry police had taken so long to reopen the investigation; she was relieved something had finally come of it. Larry Pat Souter, 39, was arraigned Thursday in White Cloud District Court for the murder of Gardenour's sister, Kristy Ringler, 19. He was released after posting $10,000 bail. Authorities alleged Souter hit Ringler on the head with a whiskey bottle on Aug. 25, 1979, just hours after the two had met for the first time at a bar. Her body was found along M-37 south of White Cloud, where she had lived. Souter, according to authorities, had been a suspect from the beginning, but investigators said they didn't have enough evidence to arrest him until now. Newaygo County Prosecutor H. Kevin Drake said he issued a warrant for Souter's arrest after the county's medical examiner, Dr. Ronald Graeser, recently convinced him that Ringler had been killed with a whiskey bottle. Police found the alleged murder weapon the day after the killing near where Ringler's body was found, he said."); Brenda #3122, married Mr. Gardenour.

His voice, still still rings in all the places that he loved so much. Tiny little memories of his laughter, and the smiles upon his face hang in the air like treasured pieces of fine old Ivory Lace. No one ever met him and not one soul ever walked away with out a smile, a lighter step to help them on their way. A heart that belonged to every one, he always gave his best. # A Grave Yard Reverie

- Written by Frank Appelfeller

Beneath the springing grasses blades
Lie mouldering forms that once were men,
And women too, and little babes.
We tread these hallowed paths again
With reverent tread.
And flowers we strew,
And memories too,
For our beloved dead.

The days gone by, earth's paths they trod,
They lived, they loved, they hoped, they yearned.
The spirit heard the call from God
And to its maker swift returned.
Their act is o'er,
The curtain's drawn,
And they are gone
Forever-more.

But they and we are but a part
Of one divine, eternal plan.
Our day is now, soon we'll depart
To join the passing caravan.
Our labors done,
This earthly clay
Must pass away,
As sets our sun.

So to our daily task may we
Our noblest effort freely give,
That life's great architect may see
No weakness in the part we live.
When we are done
All paved the way
We tread today
For those who come.

Note from Frank's granddaughter, Joyce (Appelfeller) Rarick: "I have taken the liberty of using Frank's poem, for as I read it I realized that here we are remembering our ancestors that have gone before us. However, we that are living now must prepare a good world for those who are yet to come."
